WILSON SIPS FROM THE CUP

Unique violin stylist David Wilson mixed his new album, Elegancia, at Santa Monica's Cups 'n Strings Studios. Renowned for his work with the late Henry Mancini, Wilson recorded his new album with a $3 million dollar Stradivarius in sessions engineered by Bruce Maddocks at L.A.'s Firehouse Studios. The album, featuring three tracks in 5.1 surround, is due out this summer on Con Sordino Records. Pictures (L-R): David Wilson, Cups 'n Strings engineer/studio owner Bruce Maddocks, and producer Benedikt Brydern.
