Trailblazing folk-rocker Peter Case stopped by LA's Cups 'N Strings Studios to transfer new 16-track analog material to ProTools for his upcoming album "Who's Gonna Go Your Crooked Mile? Selected Tracks 1994-2004", set for September 14 release.

As founder of The Plimsouls, renowned for the pop standard "A Million Miles Away," Case has enjoyed a flourishing career as a solo artist for the last two decades.
